

Vigil Mechanism as per Companies Act, 2013

1. PREFACE

Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 7 of Companies (Meeting of Board and its Power) Rules, 2014 inter alia states that every

(a) Listed company

(b) The company which accepts deposits from the public

(c) The company which have borrowed money from banks and financial institutions in excess of fifty crores rupees

Shall establish a vigil mechanism for the directors and employees to report genuine concerns or grievances.

The vigil mechanism provides a channel especially to the employees of the Company to report to management concerns about unethical behaviors, actual or suspected fraud or violation of this policy. Such a mechanism is intended to provide for adequate security against victimization of employees who may use such a mechanism and make provision for direct access to top-level management of the Company.

Under these circumstances, M/s. Aditya Birla Health Services Private Limited a Company registered under Companies Act, 1956 having its registered Survey N 31 Thergaon Near Morya Mangal Karyalay Chinchwad 411033 a Private Limited Company proposes to establish a Whistle Blower Policy/ Vigil Mechanism and to formulate a policy for the same due to borrowing criteria.

Being a private Limited Company, the Company is not required to constitute Audit Committee; however, the Board of directors shall nominate a director to play the role of the audit committee for the purpose of vigil mechanism to whom other directors and employees may report their concerns.

2. POLICY OBJECTIVES

The Company is committed to adhering to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of business operations. To maintain these standards, the Company encourages its employees who have concerns about suspected misconduct to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment. A Vigil (Whistle Blower) mechanism provides a channel to the employees and Directors to report to the management concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Codes of conduct or policy. The mechanism provides for adequate safeguards against victimization of employees and Directors to avail of the mechanism and provides direct access to the director designated for this purpose in exceptional cases.

This neither releases employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work nor can it be used as a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against people in authority and/or colleagues in general.

3. SCOPE OF THE POLICY

This Policy covers malpractices and events which have taken place / suspected to have taken place, misuse or abuse of authority, fraud or suspected fraud, violation of company rules, manipulations, negligence causing danger to public health and safety, misappropriation of monies, and other matters or activity on account of which the interest of the Company is affected and formally reported by whistleblowers concerning its employees.

4. DEFINITIONS

"Alleged wrongful conduct" shall mean the violation of the law, Infringement of Company's rules, misappropriation of monies, actual or suspected fraud, substantial and specific danger to public health and safety or abuse of authority".

He shall also carry out an initial investigation either by himself or involving any other officer of the Company or an outside agency before referring the matter to the Designated Director for further appropriate investigation and needful action. The record will include:

- a) Brief facts.
- b) Whether the same Protected Disclosure was raised previously by anyone, and if so, the outcome thereof.
- c) Whether the same Protected Disclosure was raised previously on the same subject.
- d) Details of actions taken by Vigilance Officer for processing the complaint. Recommendations of the Vigilance Officer.

7. INVESTIGATION

All protected disclosures under this policy will be recorded and thoroughly investigated. Designated Director may investigate and may at its discretion consider involving any other Officer of the Company and/ or an outside agency for the purpose of investigation.

The decision to investigate is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process.

Subject(s) will normally be informed in writing of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.

Subject(s) shall have a duty to co-operate with Vigilance Officer or any of the Officers appointed by it in this regard.

Subject(s) have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than Vigilance Officer / Investigators and/or the Whistle Blower.

Subject(s) have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the subject(s).

Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, subject(s) will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in the investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a subject(s) shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.

Subject(s) have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigations. If allegations are not sustained, the Subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the Subject and the Company.

The investigation shall be completed normally within 90 days of receipt of the protected disclosure and is extendable by such period as the Designated Director deems fit.

8. DECISION AND REPORTING

If an investigation leads Vigilance Officer / Designated Director to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, Vigilance Officer / Designated Director shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as he may deem fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.

Vigilance Officer shall submit a report to the Designated Director on a regular basis about all Protected Disclosures referred to him/her since the last report together with the results of investigations, if any.

In case the Subject is the director/CEO of the Company, the Designated Director after examining the Protected Disclosure shall appropriately and expeditiously investigate the Protected Disclosure.

If the report of investigation is not to the satisfaction of the complainant, the complainant has the right to report the event to the appropriate legal or investigating agency.

A complainant who makes false allegations of unethical & improper practices or about alleged wrongful conduct of the subject to Vigilance Officer shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with the rules, procedures and policies of the Company.

9. SECRECY /CONFIDENTIALITY

The complainant, Vigilance Officer, the Subject and everybody involved in the process shall:

Maintain confidentiality of all matters under this Policy

Discuss only to the extent or with those people as required under this policy for completing the process of investigations.

Not keep the papers unattended anywhere at anytime

Keep the electronic mail/files under password.

10. PROTECTION

No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/ her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this policy. The company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle-Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure. The company will take steps to minimize difficulties which the Whistle Blower may experience because of making the Protected Disclosure. Thus, if the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure, etc.

A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause to the Designated Director, who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the management.

The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law. The identity of the complainant will not be revealed unless he himself has made either his details public or disclosed his identity to any other office or authority. In the event of the identity of the complainant being disclosed, the Designated Director is authorized to initiate appropriate action as per extant regulations against the person or agency making such disclosure. The identity of the Whistle Blower, if known, shall remain confidential to those persons directly involved in applying this policy, unless the issue requires investigation by law enforcement agencies, in which case members of the organization are subject to subpoena.

Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle-blower.

Provided however that the complainant before making a complaint has a reasonable belief that an issue exists, and he has acted in good faith. Any complaint not made in good faith as assessed as such by the Designated Director shall be viewed seriously and the complainant shall be subject to disciplinary action as per the Rules / certified standing orders of the Company. This policy does not protect an employee from an adverse action taken independent of his disclosure of unethical and improper practice etc. unrelated to a disclosure made pursuant to this policy.

11. ACCESS TO DESIGNATED DIRECTOR

The Whistle Blower shall have the right to access the Designated Director directly in exceptional cases.

12. COMMUNICATION

A whistle Blower policy cannot be effective unless it is properly communicated to employees. Employees shall be informed through publication on the notice board and the website of the company.

13. RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS

All Protected disclosures in writing or documented along with the results of Investigation relating thereto, shall be retained by the Company for a period of 2 (two) years or such other period as specified by any other law in force, whichever is more

14. ADMINISTRATION AND REVIEW OF THE POLICY

The Chief Financial Officer shall be responsible for the administration, interpretation, application and review of this policy. The Chief Financial Officer also shall be empowered to bring about necessary changes to this Policy, if required at any stage with the concurrence of the Board.

15. AMENDMENT

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. However, no such amendment or modification will be binding on the Employees and Directors unless the same is notified to them in writing
